PC:

1. This is the writ petition of the year 1999. In order to seek immediate disposal of the pending cases, hearing of the writ petitions pending before this Court was spread over two benches and this bench was entrusted the duty to dispose of the writ petitions from the year 1999. Such an arrangement was made for urgent disposal of writ petitions which are pending for years. However, it is noticed that most of the petitions are not being worked out either on account of failoure of the counsel for the petitioner to appear or for addition of pleadings.

2. In any event in this case today when this matter was called out, none appeared for the petitioner nor was mentioned on behalf of the petitioner by any one. We had therefore no option but to dismiss it for want of prosecution.

3. In the event the petitioner makes an application for restoration of the petition, apart from stating the reasons for absence at the time when the matter was called out, the petitioner should also state the manner in which or the reasons for which according to him, the petition even now survives.

The petition is accordingly dismissed for want of prosecution.
